

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
Michael G. Foster School of Business

GLOBAL SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP COMPETITION (GSEC)

Seattle, WA, USA

Be an Agent of Change - Participate in GSEC

GSEC invites students from around the world and across disciplines to propose creative, commercially sustainable business plans that alleviate poverty in low income countries.

Submit a Business Plan

GSEC provides a challenging and dynamic global environment for student teams to develop innovative business solutions to pressing global issues.

Present at GSEC Week

A select number of semi-finalist teams are chosen in December and invited to participate in GSEC Week at UW (March 1-5, 2010) where they receive invaluable guidance from experts, visit Seattle companies, and compete for prize money.

Developing Leaders Who Think Differently and Make a Difference

"GSEC positively stretches participants to be more than they can be, such that after the competition, their ways of thinking give way to new modes of doing things...those that seek to solve social problems through business ventures." - 2007 Finalist

Apply online by November 11, 2009

foster.washington.edu/gsec